

Planet X / a/k/a “Nibiru” / the “12th Planet” / the “Death Star”... and many more names given, by many civilizations to what is about to pass us yet again.

PREFACE by Dr. G.J. Munn, PhD. Physics

Much has been written about this COMING HORRIFIC EVENT – that is, the passing of NIBIRU, which happens EVERY 3,600 years. The following is a brief outline... to which I now add my further observations.

DO NOT DISREGARD THIS INFORMATION IF THE NEAR TERM DATES ARE OFF A BIT.... IT NEVERTHELESS HAS HAPPENED IN THE PAST... AND WILL AGAIN BY 2012-2013!

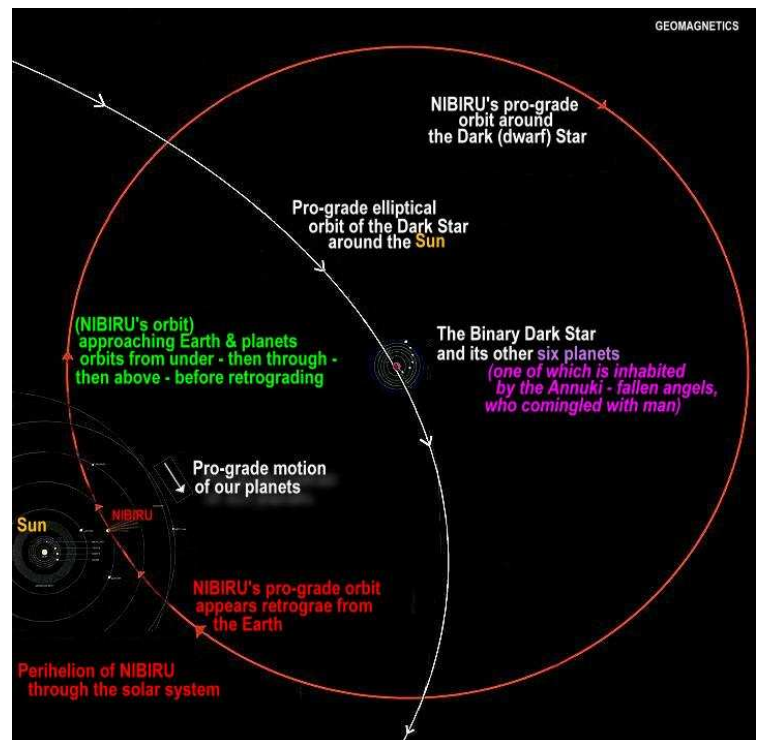

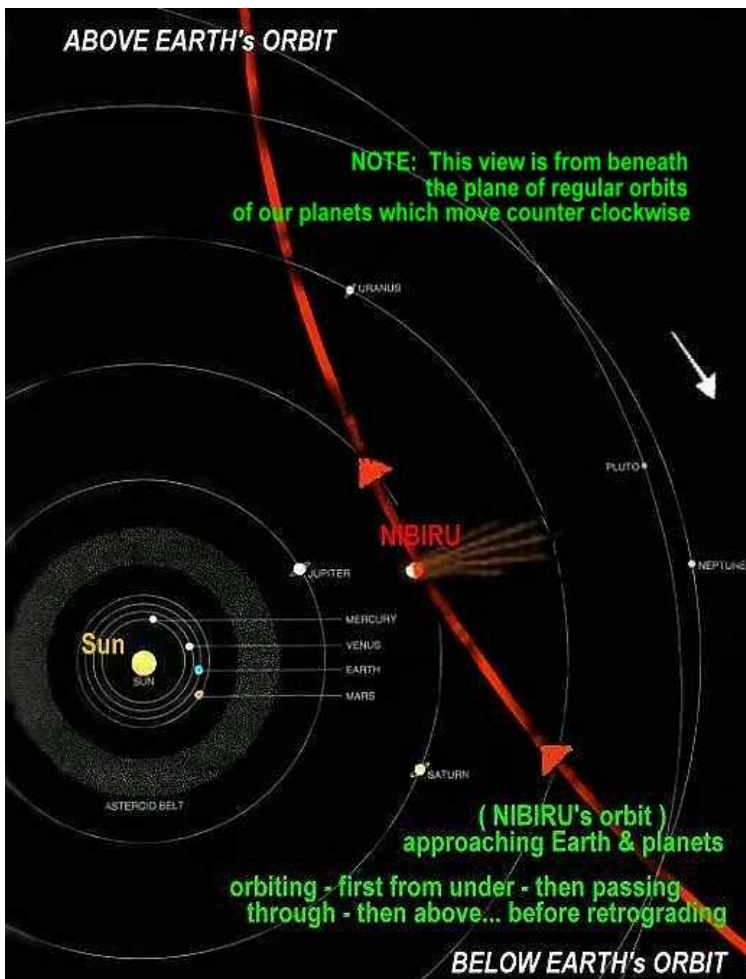

Much of the information available on Planet X was written years ago WITHOUT the help of unlimited funds from the government to substantiate. The thrust of which is correct... just the dates have a few variables.

However, as time passes, with the help of private individuals and independent scientists documenting their observations and posting/blogging on the internet, the TRUTH is prevailing. However, conversely, if too many people become aware.... I believe the government will severely limit usage of the internet and communications to prevent the masses from “panicking” – that is, overthrowing the gov’t for LYING to them.

THE AUTHORITIES DO NOT..... I REPEAT..... DO NOT.... WANT YOU TO KNOW WHAT IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN! THERE WILL BE PANIC, and worse yet, ENCROACHMENT INTO THEIR ESCAPE – ENCLAVES!

THE SPECIAL WORLD HEIRARCHY is seeing to it that their “puppet world governments” keep the citizenry in the dark until it is too late. It seems inconceivable, but nevertheless TRUE! The more you learn of this matter.... the angrier you will become. Do you not know of the containment camps and a myriad other secretive plans, which have already been instituted either by Presidential Executive Orders or foreign NATO treaties, BY WHICH YOU MUST NOW ABIDE? There are now over 300,000 of these international military personnel (with unlimited weaponry) already stationed here in America – just waiting for orders to contain any such resistance to the status quo of “normal government operations”.

Be that as it may, the following is offered in brief, along with my personal observations.... and, in all instances cross-referenced with the infallible Holy Word of God – the TRUE REFERENCE BOOK FOR MANKIND!

In January 1981 several daily newspapers stated that Pluto's orbit indicates that Planet X exists. The report stated that an astronomer from the U.S Naval Observatory told a meeting of the American Astronomical Society that irregularities in the orbit of Pluto indicates that the solar system contains a 10th planet. He also noted that this came to no surprise to Zecharia Sitchin¹, whose book about this planet came out three years prior. In 1982 NASA themselves officially recognized the possibility of Planet X, with an announcement that an object is really there - far beyond the outermost planets.

One year later in 1983 the newly launched IRAS (Infrared Astronomical Satellite) quickly found Planet X (the 10th). The Washington Post summary of an with the chief IRAS scientist from JPL California had these words to say, a heavenly body as large as Jupiter (The size being in perfect parallel to the ancients knowledge) and part of this solar system has been found in the direction of the constellation of Orion by an orbiting telescope. The orbiting telescope found it right where it was sent to look. They had known of it's existence an location for years but wanted to confirm it with our own technological eyes. These are facts I strongly urge you to check out for yourself. There have been attempts to cover-up this event and rewrite history.

Planet X's mass is about 4 times that of earth. Its density is 20+ times that of earth being a slow smoldering brown dwarf star. When Planet X passes between earth and our sun, earth will align to its strong magnetism temporarily instead of our sun's. For a short while Planet X will be earth's strongest magnetic voice or influence. Earth's rotation will then pause for 2- 3 days. The controllers of NASA are fully aware of this. Newton's law of gravity is insufficient to explain planetary science.

Planets are magnetic objects and also have a repulsion force that creates the balance between them and keeps them moving. The momentum theory for planets is absurd. What we call modern astronomical and planetary science is still very much in the dark ages because of this. Play with two magnets to find out that if both are turned a certain way it's difficult to get them to touch because of the repulsion force. The exclusion of the repulsion force in planetary science is a gigantic flaw and political embarrassment to any who've been involved. The story of the Emperor with no clothes is a perfect analogy for how it's being dealt with.

The earth's 800 miles thick crust acts as a magnetic shield, hiding the true magnetic relationships between planets from our terrestrial scientific instruments. If you want to begin to understand the workings of the solar system you would do better to read further than Newton's Law of Gravity, which does not take into account the repulsion force. The most significant scientific discoveries and revelations are usually kept quite from the public under the guise of "national security" reasons by the financial controllers of these institutions who are pulling the puppet strings.

History records many names for Planet X. The Sumerians called it the 12th planet or Nibiru (translates into; planet of passing). The Babylonians and Mesopotamians called it Marduk, The King of The Heavens and The Great Heavenly Body. The ancient Hebrews referred to it as the Winged Globe because of it's long orbit high among the stars. The Greeks called it Nemesis. Prophets have named it The Blue Star, The Red Star, The Fiery Messenger, and The Comet of Doom among others. No matter what the name used, it's the same object that has the same effects before and during it's passage of earth. The Sumerians also had a name for it's approximate 3600-year orbit (A Shar). The ancient Hindu astronomers named Treta Yuga (3600 years) and the destruction it causes Kali Yuga.

Look to Discovering Archeology, July/August 1999, on page 72. The date 1628 B.C. is given for a world wide catastrophic event. Approximately 3600 years ago and coinciding with its return at this time. Page 70 shows a medieval picture with a large comet looking object as big as the sun streaking across the sky horizontally with a giant tail. Below is a town that is shaking apart with hysterical people in the streets. This is only one of literally thousands of articles written on the matter.

Its elliptical orbit takes it around two suns. The other sun it orbits is our suns dark twin. Nibiru's inbound approach is being closely monitored by our best telescopic equipment on and off earth. This is one of many reasons the orbiting Hubble telescope live feed is hidden from our view. Do you not know of the secretive placement of the highly specialized telescopic equipment operating at McMurdo Station in Antarctica? It was placed there because of its most advantageous axial position on the globe to observe the coming Planet

X.... and NOT for weather observations as reported! The most accurate calculation for Planet X's next passage is now late 2012 thru Feb 2013 and several years more of increasingly severe after effects. We will now start feeling more adverse effects of its nearing in numbers of events and intensity.

Each time it approaches...it starts a chain of events that culminates with it passing by.... and causing our earth's surface to change drastically. These changes are the cause of massive death and destruction. History is rich with these stories. Many people from the past didn't draw the connection between what looked to be a large comet overhead and what they were experiencing at the time (volcanoes erupting, earthquakes, land masses sinking and rising, tidal waves, severe weather and floods). Some of these writers from the distant past simply noted what they thought was a foreboding sign or messenger of the prophets, instead of the cause for their woes.

In 1995 Planet X became close enough to us that its magnetism started to effect earth in a big way, which increases now daily. The closer it gets to us the faster it moves toward earth and the stronger its magnetic effects become. There is an ebb and flow to these events that are akin to the calm waves before the next big set. Surfers would be most familiar with this analogy. Expect things to get worse as it approaches nearer but not in a straight line.

Our own sun's gravity is what is pulling it closer and faster. Planet X is not going to hit earth or the sun because of the repulsion force which comes into play as they near each other. However, the damage and effect upon us will be so severe, and with BILLIONS DYING,... what's the difference?

Earth now has two strong magnetic influences in the vicinity (our sun being the main one) and its core is heating up because of it. It's like a car with the accelerator and brake on at the same time. The sun is pushing and pulling on earth one way and Planet X is now upsetting that balance with its own set of influences. This has been the reason for all the strange weather and seismic activity as of late. The polar caps are melting at an alarming rate... GO INVESTIGATE FOR YOURSELF!

The records of this approximate 7 years of turmoil prior to passing are part of biblical record from at least the last time it came by earth. Many references are made of this in the HOLY SCRIPTURES – THE BIBLE – THE WORD OF GOD. With correct scientific and historical information you don't need to be a prophet to predict the same cycle of events are happening again during Planet X's approach. These events are just a minor taste of what will come when it goes by this time. And yet even these relatively minor events can cause much destruction. Many areas of the world are going to be effected even before the date of passing in 2012 thru 2013 (and shortly after ward), there will be nowhere to run... no where to hide!

(THAT IS, OF COURSE YOU ARE CONNECTED WITH THE ILLUMINATTI – THE GODLESS GROUP WHO THINK THEY CAN BYPASS THE SORERIGN ACTS OF GOD AND HIS DIVINE WILL !!

OH, THEY WILL FOR A TIME... THE FIRST BRIEF WAVE OF DESTRUCTION... THE FLOODS, EARTHQUAKES, THE RADIATION, THE FIRES, THE RIOTING.... THEN TO IMMEDIATELY RESURFACE AND ATTEMPT TO PERMANENTLY RULE THE WORLD THROUGH THE upcoming antichrist person and his false prophet....

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

But...the Lord God is in control..... it will continue to get much worse and end in COMPLETE DEVASTATION of the human race.... With the exception of a small remnant of His people hidden in the hills of Israel.... which will repopulate the planet Earth for 1,000 years. Want to read about it?... GO TO THE HOLY WORD OF GOD – (written just for YOU to discern these times and YOUR future)

WHY DO YOU THINK THEY'RE TRYING TO KEEP THIS FROM YOU?.... Because if people found out the truth (and could count on it) CAN YOU IMAGINE HOW THEY WOULD ACT? People are barely civil now, WITHOUT this excuse!

You've been listening to a myriad of lies. The disinformation will increase in direct proportion to the closeness of Planet X by the ones with the most to lose. The financial controller gangsters with the best information money can buy are at the top of the heap. They are the ones paying for the lies and watching the approach and its effect on earth carefully. Did you know that George Bush recently purchased a lot of land and is building a large compound on a very high mountain in Paraguay? What for? Hmmm.....

First these effects were said to be caused by global warming. As predicted, when too many scientists worldwide challenged this story they changed it to super sun cycles. Sun cycles have never been the cause of simultaneous weather and seismic activity. That's why the big lie theory is stating SUPER sun cycles over a period of time that is so long it can't be checked or verified in any way. Now that is not to say that Planet X isn't having an effect on our sun at the same time that it is going through a regular cycle peak.

This is the grand daddy of all conspiracies. Using our tax money, the controllers are doing their best to hide the news of Planet X's approach and increased earth disruptions as they ready themselves for the inevitable shift in earth's axis. They give us a campaign of smoke and mirrors in return for our money they bleed from us. Our government has secretly built vast networks of tunnels many miles down with special nuclear-tipped boring machines, which can bore at least 7 miles a day. Hmmm... you're asleep... where have you BEEN? These people are serious... and they DO take prisoners!!

There are factions within this group of insiders that would like this story to surface. These concerned people are only allowed to create false alarms to further public awareness. This will result in the majority of the population (5+ billion) being uninformed about these major earth events and the time of their scheduled occurrence. Most will be in unsafe areas when these worldwide catastrophes take place.

Please do your own research with a wide eye open toward the continuing disinformation. Find your own unique sources that only you can. Then get this story out the best way you know how.... to at least bring comfort to the doomed in their hour of despair. Turn to the WORD OF GOD for the TRUTH on this issue... it was written hundreds of years ago, and is NEVER WRONG! It was written particularly for those people living right now, who are about to face the most troubling times mankind has ever known.

Oh yes, by the way, the WORD OF GOD states that the polar shifting is not just going to be a 20-30 or even a 60 degrees shift, but rather, will in short time flip the rest of the way to 180 degrees.... All in a matter of a few hours! Suppose you tell me... HOW ARE YOU GOING TO SURVIVE THAT? You won't be able to ... so get right with God now.... Do you know that when all these things start happening.... Instead of asking for forgiveness for man's sins... people will instead curse and rail at Almighty God and accuse Him of forsaking them! Mind-boggling.... To challenge the very sovereignty of God, Himself! Blasphemy!

Don't you know God has a plan for you... and this time here on Earth is only a grain of sand in comparison to eternity. Your choice is either FOR the Lord God Savior Yeshua (Jesus), the CHRIST... or against HIM - no in-between, no gray area, but in terms of black and white, clear-cut, a decision...YES, or NO! Indecision is just as bad... don't you know there is a Judgment Day coming?... there is no such thing a purgatory.... You WILL either be found in the Lamb's Book of Life.... Or ... cast into despair, anguish, and eternally separated from God forever.

Read all about it in the Word of God.... what's about to happen in every detail..... how you can be comforted during this time.... AND..... escape spiritual DOOM.

My dear friends, what's about to happen... do not hold against God... these happenstances were set in motion eons ago, and designed for a purpose. God wants the very essence of you (your soul) for His worshiping and giving to you of all that He has.

PLEASE READ MORE ABOUT IT!

Now... GO!... get saved by the Precious Blood of Jesus.. and await your time in His Holy Spirit and Mercy....

Respectfully,

Dr. G J Munn, PhD / PHYSICS
